PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

As you approach the private gates of Casa Mare, it is clear you have arrived at the epitome of luxury and excellence. Both construction and design make Casa Mare undeniably the most unique waterfront estate on offer on the Seven Mile Beach corridor. A mere shadow of the original home built in 2009, this property underwent a multi-million-dollar redesign, renovation, and expansion in 2015 with the addition of over an acre of land, a 5,600 square foot guest residence, outdoor kitchen, five car garage, three carports and meticulously planned gardens. The main residence offers open plan living on the main floor and a home office suited for the most discerning executive. The upper floor is home to the master wing with views that will literally take your breath away. Soak in the larger-than-life tub, enjoy a shower for two, and never-ending walk-in closet. Three additional guest suites and gorgeous waterfront covered patio round out the main floor offerings. Up in the Widow's Peak you will find the bunk room and ensuite currently suited for lots of little ones, but could easily convert to a craft room, games room or yet another lounging place for escape. If that was not enough, there is a private two-bedroom efficiency apartment above the two-car garage, currently arranged for a couple and nursery. The lower floor is where the magic continues with a movie theater complete with reclining leather seating to comfortably view all your favorite films or gather to watch the sporting or awards event of the year. Whether you love to work out or just want to know you can, the home gym with its full array of equipment rivals any professional gym on the Island. If yoga and stretching is part of your agenda, there is a room for that too! With all the fun in the sun, swimming, working out and entertaining you will enjoy a massive laundry room with two washers and dryers, and extensive in storage. And speaking of storage, there is a massive room for all your equipment, seas... View More
