The beach access (323 ft from driveway) on Boggy Sand Road leads to an area known for the best off-shore snorkeling that Seven Mile Beach (and Grand Cayman) has to offer. Many visitors and locals head to the beach wall on Boggy Sand Road in the evening to marvel at the amazing sunsets and beautiful view of Seven Mile Beach's western facing bay. At this sea wall, where Boggy Sand Road begins, you will find Heritage Kitchen, the well known island fish shack famous for its simple fresh fish with beans and rice. A grocery store, pharmacy, bank, liquor store and couple of casual eateries (Heritage Kitchen, Subway, Dairy Queen) are withing walking distance. Many other Activities and Restaurants are only 3-5 miles away: -Cemetery Beach 0.2 mi -West Bay Beach Dock to catch dive boats 0.25 mi; the ex-U.S.S. Kittiwake... View More
