PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

---

This canal front home is situated on just shy of a third of an acre. The home has lots of lush landscaping that gives you ultimate privacy from the main road as well as fresh crops to eat when they are in season. If you are a boater you will certainly enjoy the boat dock and quick access to the North Sound and those trips to Rum Point. Once you enter this house you feel as though you have entered what a house in the tropics should feel like. The gingerbread accents to the hardwood floors give this home a cozy tropical feel. A large living room on the ground floor is always a great place to relax after a long day at work. The home has four bedrooms and lots of storage for all your personal belongings.
