PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A three bedroom, three bathroom newly built stand-alone home in West Bay. The last remaining for sale in Gemini Place, a highly sought-after boutique neighbourhood of private villas designed by John Doak. Spanning 2,300 square feet and built to the highest standards, the home offers a spacious open-concept floor plan that maximizes natural light. It showcases high-quality finishings, starting with porcelain floors throughout. The Scavolini custom kitchen from Italy is complemented with Bosch and Frigidaire appliances. And the room's Caesarstone Quartz countertop with waterfall edge makes the large kitchen island a statement piece all on its own while providing ample seating for entertaining. The bathrooms feature Scavolini custom vanities and a range of Kohler and Delta hardware. Outside, the backyard private saltwater pool, terrace, and BBQ area, perfectly complement the home's stunning interior design aesthetic. Located in West Bay, just off Powery Road, Gemini is a stone's throw away from the beach, restaurants and Barkers National Park. Sitting at a 10-foot elevation, the development prioritizes energy efficiency with spray foam insulation, while each residence comes complete with hurricane-impact windows and doors. Thoughtfully designed with families in mind, Gemini blends community-style living with modern luxury and sustainability.
