PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Come visit Hidden Treasure, a luxurious estate home, located on the ocean front in the turquoise waters of Frank Sound. Surrounded by mature natural landscaping highlighted by dozens of coconut palms, this estate home features stunning views of the clear blue Caribbean Sea. Exceptional depth from road to sea. Private and majestic at the same time. Experience superb and relaxing ocean breezes from the seaside deck that extends to the infinity pool with endless views. With an open design on 2 floors, this residence offers 5 bed and 5 bath comprising a very impressive approx 5,300 sq. ft. Accommodating even the largest of families it is both contemporary and charismatic in the design and the furnishings will help you feel right at home with island life. The large living room opens to the patio creating an indoor/outdoor feel, the kitchen includes a separate breakfast nook area, and the dining room features a bay window looking out to the green and well kept gardens. The downstairs also features a separate bedroom with ensuite bathroom plus an additional office / bonus room that looks out over the Sea. As you head upstairs, the second level is anchored by a large and central family room with stunning views of the sea with its own large patio that is also accessible from the master suite. The master suite is essentially its own wing upstairs with ensuite bathroom and separate den area with bay window. Three other bedrooms are also located upstairs. All private, yet easily accessible. In addition, the property features a private guest house and garage facilities situated adjacent to the main home; nearby but on in its own. Perfect for guests or caretaker / staff. Extremely hidden from the road, this home has great depth from sea to road highlighted by a charming winding driveway protected by dense natural foliage. New dock currently being built for your boat and gives you access to the magical marine life in Frank Sound. A true Hidden Treasure.
